About Allens Pond Wildlife Sanctuary

Mass Audubon's Allens Pond Wildlife Sanctuary is located where Dartmouth meets Westport along Buzzards Bay. We conduct a number of programs to study and preserve this beautiful and ecologically important site. In addition to our efforts at Allens Pond, we conduct outreach in local communities and monitor Osprey and coastal water birds at other sites in Westport and Dartmouth.

About Mass Audubon

The Massachusetts Audubon Society is the largest conservation organization in New England, concentrating its efforts on protecting the nature of Massachusetts for people and wildlife. For more information or to become a member, call 1-800-AUDUBON or visit www.massaudubon.org

We need Duck Derby volunteers!

If you are interested in helping with the event, please call the Sanctuary (508) 636-2437 or email allenspond@massaudubon.org

OFFICIAL RULES: 1) Once the ducks are launched they are on their own except that the race committee reserves the right to free them if caught on the banks or other channel impediments. 2) Winners will be determined by matching the number marked on the ducks in order of finish to a race number which will be stamped on adoptions as they are received. Matching of the numbers will be completely randomized so that all entries will have the same chance of winning. 3) Decisions of the judges stationed at the finish line will be final. Judges, Mass Audubon employees and members of the Allens Pond Duck Derby Race committee will not be eligible to win. 4) Winners will be announced at the end of the race. They will also be notified by telephone, email or U.S. mail with redemption certificates enclosed. Winners will be instructed on method of claiming prize but such claim is the sole responsibility of the prize winner. Winners should redeem prizes within one year. 5) It is not necessary for adopters to be present to claim prizes. 6) Names of winners will be published in the local area newspapers following the date of the race. 7) The Grand Prize, "Dinner for Two Anywhere in the World" is subject to the following: Grand Prize winner must make destination selection no later than September 30, 2009 and destination selection must be considered an international gateway by the International Airlines Traffic Association. All travel must be completed by July 2010. The lowest applicable excursion airfare will apply. Neither land arrangements nor airline tickets are transferable or refundable. Depending upon destination there are dates referred to as blackout dates during which the trip cannot be taken. Winner must abide by airline rules regarding minimum stay and any other conditions which may be imposed on dates of travel. The Allens Pond Wildlife Sanctuary will provide ground transportation and two nights hotel stay with any upgrade or extension of transportation and hotel cost at the expense of the passengers. Winner will also be reimbursed for the cost of two complete dinners, excepting alcoholic beverages, at a restaurant of the winner's choosing at the selected destination. 8) Any variations of the above will be the responsibility of and at the expense of the passengers. 9) All arrangements required for the Grand Prize will be made by an agent of Allens Pond Wildlife Sanctuary. 10) Any prize other than the Grand Prize may be transferred to a person or persons of the prize winner's choice. Grand Prize may not be sold, transferred or assigned. Any tax liability that might be incurred as a result of winning any prize is the responsibility of the prize winner. 11) There will be no cash equivalent prizes in lieu of designated prizes. 12) The race is being supervised by Allens Pond Wildlife Sanctuary and is for the sole benefit of supporting the Sanctuary.

Our 2008 winner heads to Tanzania!

Westport resident Donna Amaral shares: "I have always wanted to do some missionary work. I have always wanted to go to Africa. Because of the Duck Derby I am able to combine both goals ... Going to Tanzania with Missions for Humanity is a way to both give and to receive..."
