

February 2010

Dear Wildwood Alum,

It's hard to believe, but it was 60 years ago that Wildwood Camp began in Barre, Massachusetts, at the Cook's Canyon Wildlife Sanctuary, where the Galloway Brook flows over a waterfall. I am delighted to invite all former campers or counselors to join me and other Wildwood alums to celebrate our history:

Wildwood Camp 60th Birthday Bash & Reunion
Saturday, May 22, 2010, at the Monadnock Conservation Center, Rindge, New Hampshire.

This is a family-friendly opportunity for adult Wildwood alums, campers and staff, from Cook's Canyon, Otter Lake, Lake Wampanoag/Camp Collier, and the Monadnock Conservation Center, to come together to reconnect with old friends.

There are two options: We'll hold the celebration on Saturday, May 22, in the afternoon, and we have allowed time for you to enjoy some activities at our beautiful site on Hubbard Pond.

Or, if you wish to spend more time at Wildwood and volunteer, you may arrive on Friday evening and spend a few hours on Saturday morning to help us set up camp for the summer. There will be jobs for all ages and physical abilities.

Come and enjoy our beautiful woods, pond, trails, and reconnect with old friends from Wildwood.

If you have any questions, please call the Wildwood office at our toll-free number, 866-627-2267, or Karen at 800-289-9504.

I look forward to seeing you in May!

Bob Speare
Wildwood Director
