GUIDELINES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

LITs are asked to adhere to the following guidelines:

- Generally, LITs will be expected to arrive at 8:00 and depart at 4:00 so that they can assist staff with preparation and clean-up of the day’s activities.
- As participants in programs and camp groups, LITs are expected to participate enthusiastically and energetically in all activities.
- Attend a LIT orientation, as well as meet regularly to review activities.
- Will wear the official Felix Neck Staff T-shirt and a name tag and follow our camp dress code.
- Bring snack, lunch, and water each day.
- Bring appropriate clothing, shoes, sunscreen, etc. for activities which may include wading, snorkeling, exploring the marsh, etc.
- Will notify the Day Camp Director if they will be absent.
- Will receive permission from the Camp Director before leaving the grounds.
- Will report any potential problems with their working conditions to the Camp Director.
- LITs will under no circumstances administer First Aid.
- LITs will under no circumstances supervise campers on their own.
- Will comply with the policies and safety regulations outlined in the Staff Manual which are modeled and enforced by the day camp and summer program staff.

I certify that I have read the GUIDELINES AND RESPONSIBILITIES of the Leaders-in-Training Program and will abide by these guidelines. If I do not understand any of these guidelines, I will ask for clarification from the Camp Director.
