

2018 Wellfleet Harbor Conference
Saturday, November 2, 2019
Schedule of Presenters and Posters

- 8:30–9:00 Continental breakfast, sign-in, poster viewing
- 9:00–9:20 Opening Remarks
Abigail Franklin Archer, Conference Moderator
Justina Carlson, Wellfleet Select Board
- 9:20–9:40 Striped Bass Management: Where We've Been; Where We're Going
Dr. Mike Armstrong, Massachusetts Division of Marine Fisheries
- 9:40–10:00 Horseshoe Crabs in Wellfleet – Crawling toward Functional Extinction
Mark Faherty, Mass Audubon's Wellfleet Bay Wildlife Sanctuary
- 10:00–10:15 Questions & Answers
- 10:15-10:45 Break (poster viewing and field trip sign-ups)
- 10:45–11:05 What's in a Name – Wellfleet Harbor's "Black Mayo"
Agnes Mittermayr, Center for Coastal Studies
- 11:05–11:15 Wellfleet Harbor Dredging Update
Dan Hoort, Town of Wellfleet
- 11:15-11:45 It's About Time: A Brief Overview of Changing Phenology in the Gulf of Maine Ecosystem
Owen Nichols; Christine Hudak, Center for Coastal Studies
- 11:45-12:00 Questions & Answers
- 12:00–12:45 Lunch
- 12:45–1:05 Hydrodynamics and Sediment Transport in the Herring River Estuary: Past, Present, and Restored
Kirk Bosma, Woods Hole Group
- 1:05-1:15 Herring River Restoration Update
Martha Craig, Friends of Herring River
- 1:15–1:30 Questions & Answers
- 1:30–1:35 Closing Remarks, Moderator

Posters

- Do seasonal water conditions affect the growth of monitored oyster and quahog seed in Wellfleet Harbor? Kristine Yang, Falmouth Academy
- Comparison of shellfish growth rates in Herring River and Mayo Creek, Nauset Regional High School
- The Curley Report – 50 Years Later, John Duane, Wellfleet Shellfish Advisory Committee
- What's up with the Mola explosion?, Carol "Krill" Carson, New England Coastal Wildlife Alliance