

HIP Happenings, Winter 2021

Free programs and opportunities for nature lovers of all ages!

At Mass Audubon's Habitat Sanctuary, 10 Juniper Road, Belmont, MA 02478

HIP Pulling Partners - Wednesday afternoons, 2:30 - 4:00 pm

Pulling Partners (PP) is a weekly service opportunity on Wednesday afternoons. Volunteers aged 14 and up work on a variety of tasks around the sanctuary, such as removing invasive plants or helping maintain trails, gardens, and grounds.

Volunteers can sign up for one or more Wednesdays each month. Numbers are limited to enable social distancing.

Sign up here for Pulling Partners in January

HIP Bird Walks - Saturday mornings, 8:00 - 9:30 am

- January 23 (rain date Sunday 1/24)
- February - no bird walk. HIP is hibernating!
- March 20 (rain date Sunday 3/21)

Once a month (except February) Habitat's Intergenerational Program (HIP) offers a free guided bird walk around the sanctuary. Join other nature lovers for a free birding adventure this winter! Led by Jonathan Layman and HIP volunteers. Spots are limited to keep group size small. Children are welcome with an adult. Please sign up in advance.

Sign up here for a Winter HIP Bird Walk

Questions?

For more information about Habitat's Intergenerational Program, or to be added to the HIP email list, please contact the HIP Coordinators at HabitatHIP@gmail.com