Species in BOLD are sensitive species that we ask not be disturbed during bird-a-thon activities. They will be considered "free birds" that everyone will receive points for.

Species marked with an asterik ( * ) are considered to be rare and their observation exceptional. If observed, the birder is required to submit their name, phone number, e-mail address, and a brief description of their encounter with the bird to the bird-a-thon birding judge.
