COVID-19 SAFETY

The health and welfare of our campers and staff remains our highest priority. We feel confident that the success of Mass Audubon Camps in designing and offering safe summers of camping for the past three years will guide us into another great summer in 2023. We will continue to stay informed and engaged with the work of the Massachusetts Department of Public Health and the American Camp Association to ensure best practices with regard to staying safe as we continue to navigate COVID-19. For the latest information on COVID-19 safety at Mass Audubon Camps, please visit massaudubon.org/camps.

OUR COMMITMENT TO DIVERSITY & INCLUSION

At Mass Audubon Camps, we strive to create a safe, inclusive, and caring camp environment where each person is respected and supported in their learning and growth. We believe that diversity—both in nature and in our human communities—is essential to strength, resilience, and innovation, and we are committed to recognizing the unique contributions of each community member. Learn more at massaudubon.org/camps.

At Drumlin Farm Camp, children ages 4-17 discover local habitats, connect with the natural landscape, and develop great friendships—a tradition we've maintained since 1956. Campers experience life on a working farm and wildlife sanctuary as they care for farm animals, observe native wildlife, participate in sustainable farming, and discover the science behind nature. At the heart of Drumlin Farm Camp are three leading concepts:

Community

Campers feel free to try new things and make new friends in our welcoming, supportive community.

Interdependence

Campers learn about natural cycles and the interconnectedness of people, agriculture, wildlife, and habitats.

Stewardship

Campers discover how they can care for the world around them as they learn about the importance of wild spaces and the benefits of sustainable farming.

Summer 2023 At-a-Glance

To ensure that as many children as possible have the opportunity to explore and make memories at camp this summer, families may register each camper for no more than four weeks of camp. This policy does not apply to the CIT or ELT programs for teens.

TEEN PROGRAMS

ENVIRONMENTAL LEADERSHIP FOR TEENS (ELT)

Ages 13–17 (Entering Grades 8–12)

Jump-start your climate activism skills in this two-week environmental leadership camp. Alongside your peers, get your hands dirty as you explore how ecosystems are adapting to a changing climate and how different types of agriculture impact humans and the environment. Learn how to identify areas that are vulnerable to the effects of climate change, locate community resources to address those vulnerabilities, and become an advocate for climate justice. You'll participate in service projects around the sanctuary, and see what climate action looks like at Mass Audubon. At the end of the session, we'll help you set goals and share resources so you can take on a climate action project in your community.

COUNSELORS-IN-TRAINING (CIT)

Ages 14–17 (Entering Grades 9–12)

Develop your leadership skills by working alongside Drumlin Farm Camp counselors and sharing your love and knowledge of nature with younger campers. Each session, you'll be assigned to work with an age group, enabling you to develop leadership skills and bonds with campers as you assist with camp programming. Staff will help you develop your individual teaching and leadership styles as you create new lessons and assist with games, songs, crafts, and wacky camp fun.

CITs attend one of two mandatory training sessions (June 27–28 or June 29–30) to learn about child development, safety, and best practices for assisting camp groups.

In addition to being a great résumé builder, hours spent volunteering may count toward community service requirements (varies by town).

Application & Commitment

Our CIT program is open by application only. If you are interested in participating, please tell us more about your experience and interests by filling out an application at massaudubon.org/drumlincamp. A one-session commitment is required to participate. This program is free of charge—participants are welcome to make a donation to help us keep this program free.

Meet Our Camp Staff

Our Team

Drumlin Farm Camp staff are dedicated and mature educators, naturalists, and students who are looking for more than “just a summer job”. They have experience working with youth, a passion for nature and farming, and a deep commitment to sharing that connection with children. Camp educators foster a caring, fun, and emotionally and physically safe environment to create a cohesive and enjoyable experience for campers. All staff undergo an extensive interview process, reference and background checks, are CPR and first aid certified, and receive training in child development, natural history, environmental education best practices, and health and safety procedures.

Camp Leadership

Drumlin Farm Camp's leadership team is composed of Camp Director Meghan Haslam (she/her) and Assistant Camp Director Chloe Briskin (they/them), along with our unit leaders, behavior and healthcare specialists, camp registrar, and program coordinator. All leadership staff bring extensive experience with camp, childcare, and nature-based education programs. They are passionate about exploring the outdoors, caring for the land we inhabit, and all things camp.

Mass Audubon is the largest nature-based conservation organization in New England. Founded in 1896 by two women who fought for the protection of birds, Mass Audubon carries on their legacy by focusing on the greatest challenges facing the environment today: the loss of biodiversity, inequitable access to nature, and climate change.

With the help of our 160,000 members and supporters, we protect wildlife, conserve and restore resilient land, advocate for impactful environmental policies, offer nationally recognized education programs for adults and children, and provide endless opportunities to experience the outdoors at our wildlife sanctuaries.
